

New releases from Tfutza Publications!

All Eyes on the Kohen Gadol

With explanations gleaned from Chazal, and more than 200 detailed illustrations, never has the Yom Kippur avodah been clearer. This magnificent book will prepare readers of all ages for a powerful Yom Kippur.

The Polygon

YONAH SAPIR

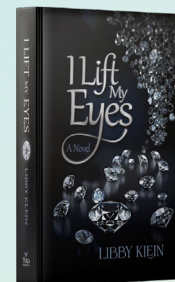

A spy is wreaking havoc throughout World War II. Who is he, and who is he spying for? Nine siblings remain parent-less in the Warsaw Ghetto. Discord tears them apart, forcing them to face difficult questions. A new standalone novel by Yonah Sapir.

Stories for Motza'ei Shabbos

YAIR WEINSTOCK

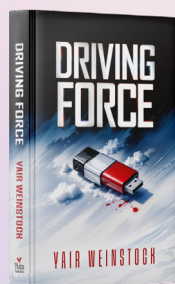

Yair Weinstock offers a captivating collection of never-before-published tales about tzaddikim that will leave readers with lasting inspiration for Motza'ei Shabbos and beyond.

I Lift my Eyes

LIBBY KLEIN

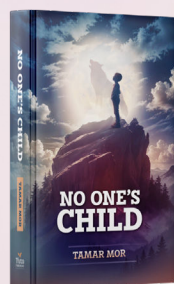

Yehoshua, Rivky, Shulem and Bashi search for the light that will reveal the truth, and guide them to make the right choices. This thought-provoking story is a journey of self-discovery and finding the strength to choose good, even when the path isn't easy. The continuation of the best-selling series.

Driving Force

YAIR WEINSTOCK

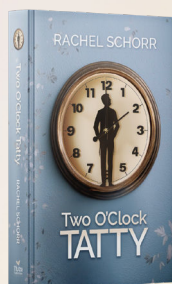

An elderly Yerushalmi Yid passes away and the nonprofit set up from the proceeds of his apartment's sale seems like the perfect solution to a family feud... A car accident... A plot swindling investors out of huge sums... The latest thriller from the legendary, best-selling author.

No One's Child

TAMAR MOR

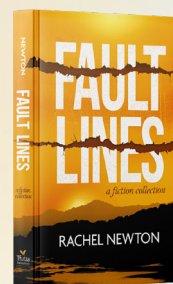

No one sees Racheli's hidden dreams or the inner turmoil Reuven carries from his childhood in the forests of Peru. When reality forces them onto a life-changing journey, they learn that life isn't about the cards you're dealt, but how you choose to play them.

Two O'Clock Tatty

RACHEL SCHORR

Everyone wants to know where Tatty has gone. And when he is coming back. Including nosy Tante Shaindy. And the neighbors are whispering... Based on a true story.

Fault Lines

RACHEL NEWTON

An unforgettable cast of characters grapples with dilemmas that threaten their closest relationships. Through rich, moving storytelling, you'll be drawn into their lives, rooting for them to make the right choices as they navigate life's fault lines.

The Greener Path

SARAH MALOVITZSKY

Gitty has everything she could possibly want. Then her father's remarriage causes her to doubt herself. Who is she, really? Join Gitty as she struggles to forge her own greener path.